Principal's Message

The Class of 1945 is about to join the ever-lengthening line of Howe graduates. As members of our little community of young people, you have had your share of responsibility for the good of this community. Now you must take upon yourselves a larger responsibility for the good of our country and of the world. At no time in history has it been more necessary for us to have good will and clear thinking on the part of our citizens. Never has there been a greater opportunity for service in the best sense of the word. That you may measure up to your responsibility and your opportunity is the best that I can wish for all of you.

Class History

In September 1941, on the horizon appeared the good ship, "S. S. Howe," bearing us, a lively and eager group of freshmen, who were now entering senior high. Our long journey towards graduation had at last begun.

After the thrill of being in senior high wore off, we settled down to the task of appointing an adviser and electing the officers who would lead us in the many activities that were to follow. Miss Marjorie Shaw was appointed adviser, and the following officers were elected: president, Russell Dixon; vice-president, Virginia Brouillard; secretary, Ruth Bourque; and treasurer, Charles Gauthier. Our first party held on board ship was a dance on Valentine's Day. The decorations consisted of hearts and cupids that were pasted on all the walls. The dance, a huge success, was enjoyed by everyone. Before saying farewell for the summer, a successful roller skating party was held on the deck of the ship. During the summer we returned several times to enjoy other roller skating parties with our classmates.

September came, and we returned to the ship to start again on our long journey. We were now sophomores and a step nearer to our goal. Our officers, the same officers who led us so successfully through our freshman voyage, were chosen to lead us again. A dance was held in October on the night of Hallowe'en. The hall was decorated with witches, skeletons, and other weird creatures. Many enjoyable skating parties were again held before we docked the boat for the summer.

The "S. S. Howe" carried a jubilant group of juniors now, because we were nearer our goal and also because everyone was looking forward to the Junior Promenade. The same officers we had in the previous years were chosen again. The Promenade was a very beautiful affair. The auditorium was the scene of a spring festival. Through the untiring efforts of the many committees, it was a very beautiful sight to behold. We again parted for the summer but returned several times to the boat for skating parties.

Seniors, at last! We were now busy with the many activities of senior year. Our first event was a formal, a winter carnival, held in January, decorated to represent snowmen carrying banners of varied hues, listing senior couples attending the affair. The grand march, with intricate movements, led by president and vice-president, "Russ and Ginny", highlighted the evening. Although it was cold, a good time was had by all.

Our next event was a senior play, "Brother Goose". The cast, coached by Miss Myra Roberts, was as follows: Edward Wells, Constance Brown, Claire Wentworth, Carol Petersen, Margaret McGrath, Russell Dixon, Ruth Bourque, Mary Lou Lewis, Kenneth Sheehan, Emelia Marynowski and Helen Tintle. The play was a huge success.

Graduation was at last in sight; and so with preparations for the big event, we say farewell to the "S. S. Howe", the ship that had carried us, the class of 1945, happily through our four years together.

M. JOYCE, '45

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1945

BE IT REMEMBERED that we, the Class of 1945 of the Howe High School in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of this life, do make this our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, hereby revoking all former wills by us at any time heretofore made.

After the payment of our just debts and funeral charges, we bequeath and devise as follows:

FIRST: I, Russell Dixon, leave my way with the women to "Jackie" Nicholson.

SECOND: I, Raleigh Dryden, leave my wardrobe in exchange for a uniform.

THIRD: I, Charles Gauthier, leave my "zoot suit" to "Dickie" Forsley.

FOURTH: I, Barbara Franz, leave my English notebook to "Eddie" Jenkins. (Just in case.)

FIFTH: I, "Peggy" Joyce, leave my freckles to Tony LaValle to add to his collection.

SIXTH: I, Bernadette Kulski, leave my sylph-like figure to the Mae West of the junior class.

SEVENTH: I, Ned Wells, leave, and hope Helen Tintle will come with me.

EIGHTH: I, "Peggy" McGrath, leave my ability to get along with teachers to Alfred Gladstone.

NINTH: I, "Ginny" Brouillard, leave my giggle to Miss Baker.

TENTH: I, Dorothy Rabidou, leave my office in Tri-Delta to Wilma Stark.

ELEVENTH: I, George Gore, leave my agricultural ability to Charles Morrione.

TWELFTH: I, "Connie" Brown, leave my basketball suit to Jean Kilmartin.

THIRTEENTH: I, Arnold Brown, leave my ability to saunter from my house at 8:40 to arrive at school at 8:30.

FOURTEENTH: I, John Cameron, leave my artistic drawings of the high school faculty to any good student who has my point of view.

FIFTEENTH: I, Grover Derry, leave my ability to make moonshine to any junior who feels the need of it.

SIXTEENTH: I, Jean Ellis, leave my peajacket to "Stonie" Johnson.

SEVENTEENTH: I, Lorraine Houlné, leave at last, forever, without any regrets.

EIGHTEENTH: I, Emelia Marynowski, leave my affability to "Dan" DeBenedictus.

NINETEENTH: I, Mary Morgan, leave my pleasing smile to a certain teacher who needs it.

HOWE HIGH YEARBOOK

TWENTIETH: I, Arthur Snell, leave my collegiate car to "Don" McDermott.

TWENTY-FIRST: I, Muriel Turner, leave my "jive" records to Howe High.

TWENTY-SECOND: I, Paul Wadleigh, have left to join the U. S. Coast Guard.

TWENTY-THIRD: I, Barbara Conway, am leaving for Keith Academy.

TWENTY-FOURTH: I, Clarence David, leave my nickname (Squawk) to any undergrad who wishes to conceal a name like Clarence.

TWENTY-FIFTH: I, John Glavin, leave my ability to stall in English to "Ray" Trainor.

TWENTY-SIXTH: I, Barbara Hughes, leave my job as attendance checker for Miss Baker to Emma Gile.

TWENTY-SEVENTH: I, "Betty" Leavitt, leave my attendance record to Barbara Mahoney and Maud Swanton.

TWENTY-EIGHTH: I, Janet McColough, leave my seat in Room 21 to "Eddie" Jenkins. (If he ever gets there.)

TWENTY-NINTH: I, Helen Tintle, leave my job as Miss McLaughlin's secretary to any junior desiring to pass shorthand.

THIRTIETH: I, Claire Wentworth, leave my basketball record and uniform to Jean Kilmartin.

THIRTY-FIRST: I, Alice Wilson, leave my bottle of peroxide hidden in the chem lab and will gladly relay instructions to any interested junior.

THIRTY-FOURTH: I, Charles Cormier, leave my ability to refrain from committee assignments to Arthur Giles.

THIRTY-FIFTH: I, Francis Glavin, leave my athletic prowess to "Buddy" Cushing.

THIRTY-SIXTH: I, Lennea Johnson, leave.

THIRTY-SEVENTH: I, Judith Marshall, leave my ability to be late for school four mornings out of five to "Dick" Brigham.

THIRTY-EIGHTH: I, Carol Petersen, leave my diving ability to "Nick."

THIRTY-NINTH: I, Kenneth Sheehan, leave my paper route to "Red" Conway.

FORTIETH: I, Janice Turner, leave my writing ability to "Barney."

FORTY-FIRST: I, William Waite, leave my way with women to "Bob" Austin.

FORTY-SECOND: I, Barbara Boyd, leave my shorthand notes to "Dot" Sands.

FORTY-THIRD: I, Ernest Chick, leave my curly locks and manly physique to "Glen" Watson.

FORTY-FOURTH: I, Elaine Crandall, leave all my report cards unstained by red marks to my brother.

FORTY-FIFTH: I, Barbara Eaton, leave my manner of delivering a class recitation to "Ned" Wells.

HOWE HIGH YEARBOOK

FORTY-SIXTH: I, Jean Fillmore, leave my red hair.

FORTY-SEVENTH: I, Edwin Gibb, leave my broad shoulders and my position as left tackle on the football team to Harris Crouse.

FORTY-EIGHTH: I, Helen Grimes, leave my shyness to Shirley Foley.

FORTY-NINTH: I, Ruth Healy, leave my vivacity to Arthur LeBeau.

FIFTIETH: I, Mary Lou Lewis, leave my library of best sellers to Miss O'Neill's English IIIA.

FIFTY-FIRST: I, Frank Slocomb, leave my curly red locks to "Tony" Lavalley.

FIFTY-SECOND: I, Viola Wilson, leave my knowledge of parts of speech to Charles Morrione.

FIFTY-THIRD: I, Nancy Lunt, leave my early morning run for the bus to Margaret Verheyen.

FIFTY-FOURTH: I, Dorothy Hansen, leave my shyness to Dora Russell.

FIFTY-FIFTH: I, Marie Fleming, leave my studious proclivities to Virginia Durgin.

FIFTY-SIXTH: I, Louise Glennon, leave my yen for chemistry class to "Okie" O'Connor.

FIFTY-SEVENTH: I, Ruth Bourque, leave my position as art editor to John Mason.

FIFTY-EIGHTH: I, William Coy, leave my chicken pickin' to "Jackie" Petersen.

FIFTY-NINTH: I, Donald Schult, leave my dislike for English homework.

SIXTIETH: I, Philip Ward, leave my memories of bookkeeping to Muriel Woodworth.

SIXTY-FIRST: I, Richard Bohannon, leave my pleasant memories of Howe High sports to John Marshall.

SIXTY-SECOND: I, Mary Keaney, leave my ability to do private school English to all struggling Howe-ites in English IV.

In testimony whereof we hereunto set our hands and in the presence of said witnesses declare this to be our last will this Fourteenth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.

CLASS OF 1945

On this Fourteenth day of June A. D. 1945 The Class of '45, Howe High School of Billerica, Massachusetts, signed the foregoing instrument in our presence, declaring it to be their last will: and thereafter as witnesses thereof we six, at their request, in their presence, and in the presence of each other, hereto subscribe our names.

Opening Night

Let us fly now in our imagination to the Gay White Way. Our plane taxis to a stop before a brilliantly illuminated club where everyone seems to be going. The name "The Dry-Den" is proclaimed to all the world by the large neon sign across the façade of the building. Let us enter unseen by any one of this multitude of opening night guests. There is the fastidiously groomed proprietor, Raleigh Dryden, greeting anew his many friends and former patrons of his old establishment on Drury Street, graduates of Howe High School, class of 1945, in Billerica.

The festivities are directed very capably by the debonair master of ceremonies, "Squawk" David.

Ruth Bourque, personal secretary, whose duties include keeping the books of the club, is seen here in the office of the club's manager, Frank Slocomb, who has just been named Esquire's "Man of the Year."

Along with Mr. Dryden, greeting people, is the head hostess, Barbara Eaton. "Barb" has had several movie offers, but she prefers her work in the Dry-Den.

Among the first patrons to arrive are Ned Wells, one of the most popular heartbreakers — until he was caught — and Mrs. Wells, the former Helen Tintle, who declares that keeping tabs on the children and on "Neddie" keeps her scampering.

And there is the girl with the cutest pair of dimples in town, the queen of the Dimples' Club, Louise Glennon.

Suddenly our attention is directed toward the stage as the curtain rises on the "Spotlight Band of the Week" with its rendition of "Drum Boogie," featuring "Gene Krupa" Gauthier and torch singer, "Frances Langford" Keaney. The ever popular "Harry James" Dixon flourishes his baton, our maestro di cappella.

Well! Do you see whom I see? William Waite, the noted French professor at a very exclusive girls' school, is here.

Richard Bohannon, that gentle little hunk of man, is the considerate bouncer in this club. His policy is to throw out only those who do not seem to be having a good time.

Let us stop here beside this foursome talking over old times. The predominant voice is that of the new Hollywood comedienne, Elaine Crandall. Almost equally well heard is Ruth Healy. Ruth now has her own column in the "Bugle". She tells unhappy spinsters how to get a man. Both girls are accompanied by their current beaux. Elaine has just informed the group that Ernest Chick was last seen in Russia. It seems that he is exploring the world.

ON STAGE

Here is Marie Fleming. My, how she has changed! It is rumored along the grapevine that she is now Carmen Miranda's understudy.

That distinguished-looking, well-dressed gentleman standing by himself in the corner is Arnold Brown. He plays the butler rôles that used to belong to Arthur Treacher.

Another Brown here tonight is Connie Brown, now the twenty-fifth Mrs. Tommy Manville.

Barbara Boyd is here with her husband. She met him when she was training to be a nurse. He was one of her patients.

We overhear in another quarter that Jean Fillmore's archaeologist husband has taken her to the Yucatan. He says that down there he knows where she is nights.

Paul Wadleigh arrived rather late. He came directly from Carnegie Hall, where he had given a violin concert.

We have just discovered that the pretty little dark-haired dancer participating in the floor show tonight is our own Dottie Hansen.

Bernadette Kulski has not arrived yet, although she is expected at any minute. She wired that she missed the plane she was planning to get from Buenos Aires, and that she would have to wait for the next one that left an hour and a half later. We were surprised. Bernie never missed a bus when she was in school.

Nancy Lunt just flew into town with her newly acquired husband Lord Alexander Wesniewski in their private plane from their summer home on the Riviera.

If you don't see George Gore here tonight, you can listen to his dry and intelligent humor over NBC every Wednesday evening.

Over there is Edwin Gibb, now playing guard with the Chicago Bears, and doing very well for himself.

Franny Glavin, arriving after playing professional basketball tonight, says he is playing the sport in order to put his children through college.

Lorraine Houlné is missing from the group. Her absence is possibly due to the fact that she has just recently opened a day nursery. She had plenty of experience for such an establishment while she was still in high school.

Janet McColough, the navy nurse who was voted "The Nurse with Whom We'd Most Like to be Marooned Anywhere" by thousands of sailors, brings us news that Jean Ellis is trying to master the Swedish language so that she can converse with her husband, a sailor, who helped man the Gripsholm, back in 1945.

HOWE HIGH YEARBOOK

"Judy" Marshall, now a famous musician, has her own program, "Take It or Leave It," that may be heard every Sunday evening at 9:30 p.m.

There is among the gay folk here tonight, a distinguished figure in the person of "Phil" Ward, the American ambassador to Siam.

Another high-ranking personage is Donald Schult, who is a Rear Admiral in the United States Navy. He joined the Navy ranks during his senior year at Howe. Remember?

William Coy is in Movieland. He usually plays the role of the precocious little boy, and very well, too.

We learn that Barbara Conway is the head telephone operator for the "Pay in Advance Hotel" here in New York.

"Dottie" Rabidou, who is seen near the check room, has a very good position as private secretary to the president of a large bank in town.

Barbara Franz, an eminent psychiatrist, has her office in the Empire State Building, she proudly declares to all who are interested in hearing.

Rita Caissie is here with her husband. She started out taking dictation, but now the boss takes it.

Here comes "Lindy" Snell, who has just built his millionth car, the "Flash."

The Charles Cormiers are entering now. Mrs. Cormier certainly has some beautiful furs, since Charlie spends most of his spare time hunting and trapping.

We see over there the newest star of Broadway, Alice Wilson. She is with her leading man, Horace Howright.

Many of the class of "45" have received flying lessons from "Power Dive" Cameron at his flying field. He is at the moment being besieged by auto-graph hunters.

Mary Lou Lewis, we see, is on from California for the opening of the "Dry-Den". She is making a name for herself as a director in Hollywood.

We have another resident of Sunny California in the person of "Ginny" Brouillard, hula-hula dancer in a famous night spot.

The well known musical instructor, Barbara Hughes, has just entered with one of her former pupils. He never made any progress because neither of them could keep his attention on the music.

Janice Turner is here with her husband — a duke no less.

"Peggy" McGrath has altered considerably since graduating. She has started to grow up/ It must be her family of six.

Mary Morgan's presence lends a lot of dignity. She is a member of the editorial staff of a well known newspaper.

That illustrious research chemist "Eddie" Dugan can be seen above the heads of the crowds. He is ac-accompanied by his wife, Lennea Johnson, the editor of the exclusive magazine "Styles for the Tiny Woman."

"Peggy" Joyce is not here tonight. We hear that she is working very hard for the good of her patients at the hospital where she works. Or is it for the handsome medico that she is working hard?

"Betty" Leavitt is alone tonight. Any day her face may be seen on the cover of a popular magazine. Betty is a Walter Thornton model.

Helen Grimes has been very busy since turning domestic. She lives on a farm where she raises children and hogs.

Emelia Marynowski has dropped her best office manner for the evening in order to enjoy herself. She makes a very efficient secretary and brightens the office tremendously, we hear.

"Kenny" Sheehan is holding down the position of chief engineer of the refrigeration department of the General Electric plant.

A resident of Tewksbury, Viola Wilson, is here among us. Everyone knows why she now resides in Tewksbury.

The famed shipbuilder, Grover Derry, is here. His hobby is building and racing model ships.

Muriel Turner is doing detective work for the government.

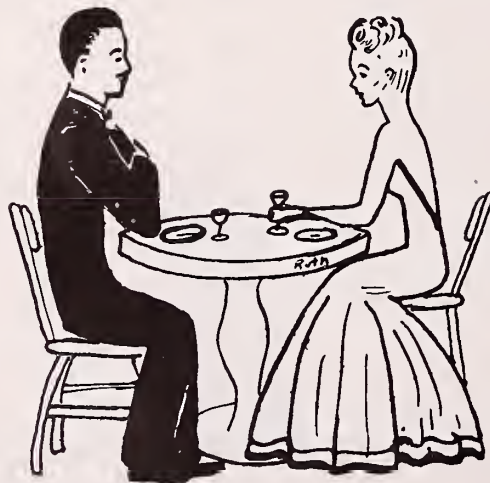

John Glavin, after handling the "pigskins" at Howe, has taken to raising them for a hobby in his spare moments.

Carol Petersen, now the business manager of a large printing establishment, has not failed to show up tonight to see her old friends. It could be that she is looking for a few more subscriptions.

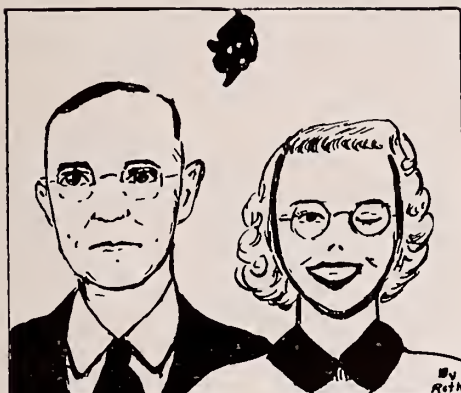

Claire Wentworth is often seen downtown with various of her ten children, although she is alone tonight.

We have either seen or had news of all of the class of '45, ten years in advance, so let us now leave the "Dry-Den" as unobtrusively as we entered it, and return to the year, 1945.

Sports

The Football Team

The football team of '44 started practice under the direction of Coach John Sullivan. When Coach Sullivan resigned, a new coach was not found until a few days before the first game. Meantime, showing the Howe High spirit, the football boys practised by themselves and got into good physical shape. "Phil" Collins was then appointed coach, and it was a confident team that entered the first game against Dracut.

All season long the team was hampered by injuries and ineligibilities, but the boys played hard and attained a successful season.

1. HOWE 27 DRACUT 0

The Howe team proved to be the superior of the two teams that were rated as even before the game. The team got off to a flying start, which proved that Coach Collins had done an outstanding job in his few days as coach.

2. ST. MARY'S, WALTHAM 19 HOWE 0

This was a hard, gruelling game. After the Howe gridsters had held a big, well-trained St. Mary's team to a one touchdown lead for three-quarters of the game, the St. Mary's boys rolled over the tired Howe eleven for two more touchdowns, which sewed up the game.

HOWE HIGH YEARBOOK

3. HOWE 6

WILMINGTON 6

This game was the season's heartbreaker. The Howe High gridsters held a sparkling one touchdown edge for most of the game by virtue of their powerhouse running drive. Late in the last quarter, after the game had been all in favor of the Howe team, Wilmington tied the game by means of their good passing attack. The Howe High team's pass defense left something to be desired.

4. HOWE 6

WESTON 0

The Howe High eleven journeyed to Weston to play in the first morning game of the year. The two teams battled on even terms until the "Green and White" pushed over the winning touchdown late in the last quarter.

5. LEXINGTON 1

HOWE 0

After the Howe team had beaten Lexington 6 to 0 in a game filled with thrills of goal line stands and hard running, the game had to be forfeited because of a violation of the eligibility rules.

6. HOWE 6

TEWKSBURY 0

The Howe gridsters entered enemy territory for the third time, and came out with another hard earned win. This game was mainly a battle between two big, evenly matched lines. After a Tewksbury touchdown was nullified earlier in the game, the Howe team penetrated Tewksbury's territory and end zone on a sustained march. On this march the Tewksbury line made a great goal line stand, but the Howe boys had the stuff to put the ball over.

7. STONEHAM 13

HOWE 0

The Stoneham team was superb as it ground out a decisive win over the hard fighting Howe High eleven. Although the Howe boys tried hard, they were outclassed by Stoneham's big linemen and flashy backs, even so, a few breaks and the game would have ended in a tie.

8. CONCORD 19

HOWE 7

The Howe High team entered Concord's football field as a slight favorite, but they were completely outplayed throughout most of the game. The Howe team displayed power on their down march, but the rest of the game was all Concord's. Some hard practise followed this disappointing game.

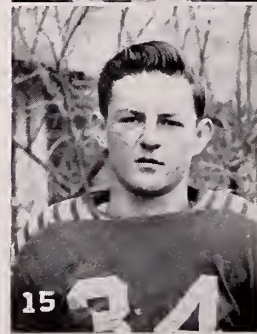

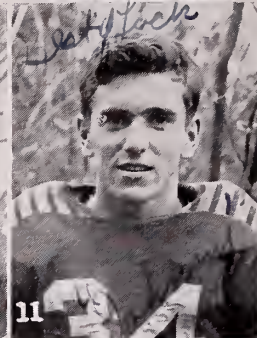

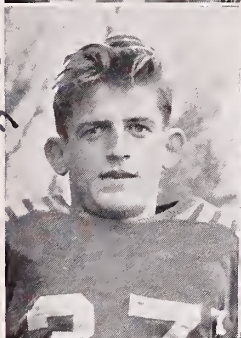

9. HOWE 6

CHELMSFORD 6

The usual thriller took place on Chelmsford's field on Thanksgiving Day. The field was very muddy; but even so, each team displayed fine football. After Chelmsford had scored first on a line plunge after a long march, the "Green and White" came back and scored on a short pass play. Both teams failed in their attempts to get the point after touchdown. The closeness of the game is seen when one realizes that each team got nine first downs.

The Cheerleaders

At all Howe football games this year, the football fans were led in all their cheers by twelve lively Howe girls, dressed in green skirts and white sweaters, decorated with the letter H.

Claire Wentworth led the girls, with Emelia Marynowski, Virginia Brouillard, Helen Tintle, Betty Leavitt, Peggy Joyce, Connie Brown, Wilma Stark, Virginia Kilmartin, Peggy Glavin, and Dorothea Sands assisting her.

Under the supervision of Miss Marjorie Shaw, assisted by Peggy McGrath, the girls set a new record in Howe cheerleading.

The girls accompanied the boys to the football rally to set the stage for the Chelmsford game and to show the squad that all loyal Howe rooters were solidly supporting the Howe team.

Baseball Team

The varsity baseball team of the 1944 season played ten games. Under the direction of Coach John Sullivan, they achieved a mediocre season. After being beaten 13 to 0 in the first game by a fine Keith team, the Howe High ballhawks proceeded to take the measure of the Tewksbury, Wilmington, Philip's Academy, and Chelmsford teams, thus, at the end of the first half of the season the team had four wins and one loss to their credit. In the second half of the season, they reversed this total of wins and losses. The final standing was five wins and five losses for the Howe High ballplayers, Francis Glavin, Henry Casey, Russell Dixon, Paul Wells, Irving Clark, Bruce Lloyd, Clarence David, Ray Trainor, Walter McCusker, Paul Wadleigh, Ned Wells. Leo Plourde and Edwin Gibb were team managers.

Boys' Basketball

The basketball candidates started practice early in December, and so were in good trim when they played and beat the Alumni in the first game of the season. Under the coaching of Phil Collins, the team has beaten the teams from Burlington, Grenier Field, Tewksbury, Lowell Club, and Dracut. In turn, the Howe High team has been beaten in games with Concord, Keith, Chelmsford, Shirley Industrial, and also in a return game with Tewksbury.

The first team consists of Captain John Glavin, Ned Wells, Russell Dixon, Charles Gauthier, Francis Glavin, and Raymond Trainor.

The team closed the season with return games with Dracut, Burlington, and Chelmsford.

Girls' Basketball

Under the adept coaching of Miss Mary Fitzgerald, the Howe High girls have had a successful season. The Howe girls lost to Burlington by one point, 21-20. They defeated the Woburn girls, however, by the score of 25-17.

After losing the next game to Tewksbury by 15-14, the Howe girls went forth to capture two victories from Chelmsford and Johnson, and to defeat the Dracut lassies by 40-20.

In a return game with Tewksbury, the Howe girls tied 19-19. A defeat to Dracut followed with the score of 39-30.

The Howe girls, after the Dracut defeat, went ahead and won the return games with Chelmsford and Burlington.

The season was thrilling and the games were close, but each girl did her best to bring victories to her team. Those who made the Howe High squad were Captain Virginia Brouillard, Jean Ellis, Helen Tintle, Betty Leavitt, Marilyn Gracie, Anna McCusker, Constance Brown, Mary O'Neill, Dorothy O'Brien, Elsa Tuttle, Virginia Kilmartin, and Diana Morse.

Yearbook Staff

The Yearbook Staff of the class of 1945 has striven to make their yearbook the best ever published by Howe. The coöperation and the zeal of all the members have been the chief factors in the ultimate success of this publication.

Our resourceful adviser, Miss Mary H. O'Neill, is deserving of much credit for her invaluable assistance to the staff. Judith Marshall, editor-in-chief, has also spent much time and effort in preparing the yearbook for publication with the able assistance of Barbara Franz and Russell Dixon.

The Yearbook Staff is composed of the following: J. Marshall, R. Dixon, B. Franz, R. Bohannon, V. Brouillard, M. Joyce, E. Marynowski, C. Petersen, D. Rabidou, A. Wilson, V. Wilson, C. Wentworth, M. Turner, J. Turner, H. Tintle, M. McGrath, J. McColough, N. Wells, K. Sheehan, A. Snell, G. Gore, J. Glavin, W. Waite, N. Lunt, B. Boyd, A. Brown, C. Brown, R. Caissie, J. Cameron, E. Chick, B. Conway, C. Cormier, E. Crandall, C. David, B. Eaton, J. Fillmore, J. Ellis, C. Gauthier, L. Glennon, H. Grimes, B. Hughes, R. Healy, D. Hansen, L. Johnson, B. Kulski, B. Leavitt, M. Lewis, R. Bourque, M. Fleming, F. Glavin.

Scholastic Review

The Scholastic Review Staff has again done an excellent job of editing the bi-monthly school review.

Several innovations have been made to render the paper more interesting and informative to the high school reader. Some of these are "We Introduce", in which two outstanding persons are interviewed and entertainingly presented, and the "Gossip Corner", which defames anyone and everyone.

The staff is as follows: Emma Gile, Joan Frobese, co-editors-in-chief; Joseph Keating, Cynthia Cousins, Mary Plourde, Eileen Hurley, Leon Bryant, Frederick Kelly, associate editors; Richard Nickless, Donald Barnard, sports editors; Ruth Bourque, senior reporter; Joyce Johnston, junior reporter; Douglas Hall, sophomore reporter; Olive White, freshman reporter; Ruth Bourque, Emma Gile, typists; Miss Helen Davis, faculty adviser.

Senior Play - "Brother Goose"

One of the outstanding events of the season was the Senior Play, Brother Goose, a comedy in three acts, written by William Davidson and directed by Miss Myra Roberts.

The cast is as follows: Peggy, the girl with the Winkel plan, as portrayed by Connie Brown; Jeff, the head of the harum-scarum Adams family, Ned Wells; Wes, Jeff's younger brother, who is usually suffering from a case of young love, Russell Dixon; Carol, the next to the youngest in the Adams family, who spends all her time entering newspaper contests, Helen Tintle; Hyacinth, the youngest Adams and an avid football player, unforgettable, as played by Peggy McGrath; Eve, our sweet Southern belle, Emelia Marynowski; Lenore, a very sophisticated young lady, who gets mixed up with some poison ivy, Claire Wentworth; Mrs. Lyly Trimmer, a forceful woman with a sense of humor, who has Wee Blue Inn plans, Mary Lou Lewis; Helen, the latest in the long list of housekeepers of the Adams family, Ruth Bourque; Sarah, the buxom Negress, Carol Petersen; Kenneth Sheehan, as the fighting truck driver; also, not to be forgotten is Arnold Brown, as the Voice.

The class of 1945 wishes to thank Miss Roberts for her help and her coöperation. She deserves a great deal of credit for the success of the play.

Tri-Delta Club

The girls of the Tri-Delta Club have enjoyed an unusually active year. Under the capable direction of their adviser, Miss Marjorie F. Shaw, a full program was planned, with one special activity for each month.

The schedule of functions was as follows: October—hayride; November—victory hop; December—Christmas party; January—splash party; February—skating party; March—Tri-Delta dance; April—theater party; May—scavenger hunt. Each of these events was well attended by an enthusiastic group, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Another special feature of this year's club was the weekly luncheon meeting. Every Wednesday noon the girls met for informal chat over their lunch, and then a regular business meeting was held.

The officers of the club were president, Alice Wilson; vice-president, Mary Lou Lewis; secretary, Constance Brown; treasurer, Dorothy Rabidou.

Glee Club

The high school Glee Club has had a very successful year. Under the direction of the music supervisor, Mrs. Mildred McKeen, the group has spent an enjoyable hour each Wednesday afternoon, singing various types of music.

At the present writing it is planned to hold a concert if existing circumstances will allow. Such a concert would be held in the Maurice A. Buck Auditorium under the joint sponsorship of the high school glee club and the orchestra, on the evening of Friday, May eleventh. Specialties, solos, and group selections will be presented. For the one hundred members of the club such a program would be most welcome.

Orchestra

The orchestra of the high school has done an admirable piece of work this year. The capable director, Mrs. Mildred McKeen has conducted the orchestra at special assemblies, for entertainment, and at the graduation exercises.

Those composing the orchestra are E. Atamian, E. Hurley, C. Cousins, R. Torosian, M. Gross, J. Cameron, J. Lynch, R. Smith, M. Gracie, F. Marshall, N. Marshall, L. Bryant, D. Nuttall, R. Nickless, J. Jacobs, A. Brown, R. Conolly, S. Hedberg, R. Austin, E. Gile, and E. Harford.

Although the orchestra is smaller this year than it has ever been, each member is striving to give the best possible performance on the evening of the Senior Play, "Brother Goose," and on graduation day, June thirteenth.

To the orchestra and to its director, we are most grateful for their cooperation and their resourcefulness.

In the long run

You and your friends will prize the portrait that looks like you . . . your truest self, free from stage effects and little conceits.

It is in this "long run" photography that Purdy success has been won. Portraiture by the camera that one cannot laugh at or cry over in later years.

For present pleasure and future pride protect your photographic self by having Purdy make your portraits.
